would we, who have pledged our lives in struggle, send back to our friends and neighbors this most urgent appeal. In the name of our bleeding country, I bid the administration, the world, in the name of our glorious past, a possible future still more glorious, in the name of a republican government and all the accompanying beneficent institutions, we do this: May Heaven most solemnly implore our brethren in the coming election to ignore all considerations of personal interest and advance

Let factious spirits cease criminal waste of time and energy in useless criticism of the Administration. County Attorney.

In the case of Davis and Leighton, Judge Kent announced the following reports:

The evidence for which these reports stand is in the case of Davis and Leighton, and is as follows:

The government has proved all the charges except that of an assault and battery.

The respondents have pleaded guilty to that.

The facts, as I gather them from the examination, are that Mr. Tower was the owner of the High School for boys in this city at the time of the assault.

On the morning of the 22nd of January, as he was walking in the street, he was assaulted by the two respondents, who did not with weapons, but he was struck by them several times, and after having them and crossing the street, he was followed by both and again assaulted, and either fell or was thrown down by them and again injured by them, when down the extent of his injuries was not so serious as at first feared, but certainly they were serious.

One of the boys was then a scholar in his school; the other had been, but had left a year or more before this assault. They both appear to be stout and athletic boys of 17 or 18 years of age, and nearly of the same size as Mr. Tower.

I confess I have been in great doubt as to city as to the evidence for which these reports stand, and I am now in doubt as to the evidence for which these reports stand.

The telegraphic statement of a million of notes waiting the orders of Gen. Grant, was not a million dollars worth, or about that amount, but a million dollars, Mr. Chase would not have a penny more greenbacks or borrow money for a year to come to carry on the war.

A gentleman recently arrived at New York from Canada, states that a lot of $1600 was paid to him the other day in Quebec, wholly in American silver. He didn't want the stuff, but was compelled to take it. Fanny a man in these times, and in the United States, looking with disgust upon half a bushel of silver.

Many appointments. The Lewiston Journal says that officers for one and a half regiments of a Louisiana negro brigade, are to be appointed from Maine. Captain Appleton of the 12th

Maine, will be Colonel of one, and Capt. Cyrus Hamlin of the regular army, will be Colonel of the other. Cap. Mudgett of Bangor, of the 2d Maine, will be Lieut. Colonel of the latter regiment. Capt. B. of the 25th Maine, declined the Lieut. Colonelcy of Col. Appleton's regiment.

Capt. Patten of Waterville, of the 2d Maine, will be Major of Col. Hamlin's regiment. Gov. Cor-bush has designated men to fill the remaining positions. Charles W. Lowell, Esq., of Foxcroft

(a Union democratic member of the Maine Legislature), has been appointed Captain in the regiment, and left today to report to Gen. Ulmer at New York.

The Pioneer says the friends of McEllaine are going to invite him to visit Presque Isle this week. Hon. Mr. Bradbury has arrived in New Orleans. He will probably be here for Government. The Democrats, this year, says Toby Candor.

They had better get his views first upon military conspicuity of the slaves.

It is stated that Gov. Corbush may accept the offer of the Maine Soldiers' Relief Association at Washington, which proposes to perform the duties of the State Agency there at $200 per month.

The Committee on Education has reported against the abolition of State Superintendents of Schools.

There is a report that the Augusta Age has changed hands. That Mr. Pike has retired will return as the editor of the Lewiston and John L. Blaine of Gardiner, are to be reinstated as editors of the paper.

We heard, some time ago, that the more active spirit of democracy was in negotiation for the Age. Pike has recently been intense enough in all connections.

The "Peace" Convention a Failure. The

Kentucky House of Representatives, on the 17th rescinded its resolution passed the day previous, inviting Commissioners from other State Legislatures to meet Commissioners appointed by that body at Louisville. A loyal sentiment is yet too powerful for the copperheads.
